QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

The certification process will ensure that all audits and certification decisions are conducted in accordance with the requirements of the relevant standard. In addition, Judah Compliance Auditors is fully committed to ensuring that it fully complies with all relevant standards and requirements of regulatory bodies.

Judah Compliance Auditors will ensure that a professional service will be offered to clients through the use of trained, experienced and competent audit and support staff.

Judah Compliance Auditors will continually seek to improve the services it offers and will do so through acting upon client's feedback, regular internal and external audits and reviews of reports, reviews of staff, management review meetings and management meetings.

Any client who feels dissatisfied with any aspect of the service provided by Judah Compliance Auditors is encouraged to put in writing their complaint which will be responded to promptly and thoroughly investigate.

Any client who disagrees with a Certification Decision has the right of appeal which will be put before an independent Appeals Panel, comprising individuals who are not employees of Judah Compliance Auditors.

In conducting certification activities Judah Compliance Auditors fully understands the importance of ensuring that the certification process and all audits are conducted in an impartial manner and no conflict of interest exists. To this end checks have been introduced throughout the certification process to identify any potential conflicts of interest and an independent Impartiality Committee has been established to oversee the operations of Judah Compliance Auditors and in particular the certification process.
