4.0 Description of activity

4.1 Quality System Incidents

4.1.1 For the purposes of this document “Quality System Incidents” are defined as complaints, suggestions, observations and opportunities for improvement. Quality System Incident data is entered into the Corrective Action System. This procedure describes the methodology by which Judah Compliance Auditors collects and processes incident reports; and communicates the impact to staff members.

4.1.2 Judah Compliance Auditors recognizes that incidents occur in daily operation that collectively have an impact on the Quality Management System. In order to properly analyze and address system issues a consistent and thorough process for collection of information is vital.

4.2 Complaints

Complaints are incidents of grievance or dissatisfaction with Judah Compliance Auditors service. Complaints may be:

- internal in nature - raised by a Judah Compliance Auditors staff member with regard to internal service, operations or employee performance
- external in nature- raised by Judah Compliance Auditors clients, suppliers or other affiliated organizations
- written
- verbal
- complaints raised by client’s customers or stake holders

The incidents and complaints are considered as any of the below 4 things and procedure describes the system for handling the same.

4.3.1 Suggestions

Judah Compliance Auditors recognizes that positive feedback is as important as negative. Suggestions are vital in identifying preventive action and system improvement. As with complaints, suggestions may be internal or external in nature, written or verbal.

4.3.2 Appeals

Judah Compliance Auditors recognizes that the client may have some reservations or may not agree with the conduct of auditor, audit findings, certification committee decision and / or overall interaction with Judah Compliance Auditors staff. Client is free to communicate the same to Judah Compliance Auditors Appeal subcommittee and this is treated as an appeal from the client.

4.3.3 Observations

Observations are witnessed incidents of service/operational deficiency, malfunction and or failure. Observations are often made by individuals independent of the activity witnessed and therefore objective in nature . Observations also play important role in identification of preventive action and system improvement.

4.3.4 Opportunities for Improvement

Opportunities for Improvement are incidents where the system has not failed, yet greater operational efficiency may be obtained in analyzing current practice. Opportunities for Improvement are often collected internally, but input from external sources is also beneficial.

4.4 Receipt of Incidents

4.4.1 The quality incident may be reported by any means – verbal or written. In case of an external source, the incident report may be received by any staff member. The staff issued late,

- Auditor/subcontractor problems with incomplete audit or surveillance documentation
- Operations - problems with general compliance with Judah Compliance Auditors administration or audit procedures

4.5.2 After compliant investigation, the complainant is notified of the outcome. This may include training / counselling of the person involved. The CAPA is discussed with management during next Management Review. Appropriate action is taken based on discussions (change in procedure / formats, training to all personnel etc). An email is sent out to all staff detailing the issue and remedial action (for information).

4.5.3 In case of a complaint / observation against a certified client, the Certification Manager studies the complaint and discusses with the auditor (last audit). If the complaint is found genuine and valid i.e. indicates a system failure, the complaint is sent to the client for a response. No confidential reports or information will be sent to complainants without written permission from the client. Adequate time is given to the client for response. If required, Certification Manager follows up with the client for the response. Depending on the response, Certification Manager may decide to –

- Write to the complainant about the response and asks for his response.
- Ask further clarification from the client
- Depute an auditor to personally visit the client and investigate for system failure. Such visit shall be considered as special visit and charged to client.
- Request a joint meeting with client, complainant and Judah Compliance Auditors
- JC Auditors will finally at the joint meeting discuss the full extent of the complaint with the certified client and the complainant. Subsequent resolutions arising from these discussions will consider the need for public disclosure of the complaint. The means of any such public disclosure (e.g. website) to also be decided on and recorded in the minutes of such a meeting.

4.7 Handling of Suggestions /Opportunity for improvement

- In case of suggestion / opportunity for improvement, the source is predominantly internal and the concerned staff member fills the incident report and submits to Certification Manager. The other source may be internal / external audit.
- Certification Manager studies the suggestion to determine any conflict with ISO 17021, Judah Compliance Auditors Procedures and Judah Compliance Auditors Policies. In case the suggestion is in conflict, the same is communicated to the initiator. However, the suggestion is also discussed in Management review. In case the suggestion is found not in conflict, the suggestion is studied for benefits and the impact on other processes.
- The suggestion is accepted if found beneficial and does not adversely impact any other process. Certification Manager determines the changes in existing documentation and implements through Document Change process (QP01).
- If any certified client or interested party asks for the appeal/complaint handling process then it is forwarded to Certification Manager. He will inform a certified client /any other interested party the appeals and complaint handling process of Judah Compliance Auditors if any complaints / appeals are received by certified clients / interested party

4.8 Closing of complaint and appeal

4.8.1 Depending on the nature of the non-conformity, the Certification Manager / Technical Manager may follow up with requests for corrective and preventive actions. When the investigation of client complaint and appeal determines that remote operation or other external organizations contributed to the complaint and appeal, the Technical Manager or his delegate contacts these organizations and provides them with all relevant information.
